

Syllablast

Use Cases

1. Choose Configuration:

- a. Participating actor: Initiated by user
- b. Entry Condition: nothing
- c. Exit Criteria: One of n starting configurations is applied to the puzzle.
- d. Flow of events:
  - i. user chooses a starting config from n options
  - ii. display refreshes into selected config.

2. Swap Syllables:

- a. Participating actor: Initiated by user
- b. Entry Condition: 2 Syllables must be selected.
- c. Exit Criteria: Syllables have swapped, Swap counter and score updated.
- d. Flow:
  - i. User selects 2 syllables to swap.
  - ii. display refreshes with syllables in new places and updated score and swap counts.

3. Reset Syllablast:

- a. Participating actor: initiated by user
- b. Entry condition: must have chosen a configuration and have made atleast one swap or completed the puzzle.
- c. Exit Criteria: All swaps are undone to the starting configuration.
- d. Flow of events:
  - i. User requests reset puzzle
  - ii. puzzle resets to start config and the display refreshes.

4. Undo Swap:

- a. Participating actor: initiated by user

- b. Entry Condition: At least one swap must be performed before hand and puzzle must not solved.
- c. Exit Criteria: A swap is undone, and swap counter decremented
- d. Flow:
  - i. User requests undo swap
  - ii. Syllablast Checks for previous moves and if exists undo's the move and GUI updates

5. Complete Syllablast:

- a. Participating actor: Initiated by User
- b. Entry Condition: A syllable must be swapped.
- c. Exit Criteria: All Syllables turn green i.e are in correct position.
- d. Flow:
  - i. User Swaps last syllables to their correct position.
  - ii. Syllablasts ensures all positions for correct syllables and shows a congratulatory banner.

Storyboard:

2. Click to quit game

1. Click to Choose a Configuration

** Here we can see number of swaps made and current score

7. Cant undo now

8. Click to reset same configuration